HOPE
HOUSES OF PRAYER EVERYWHERE

“I urge you, first of all, to pray for all people, as you make your requests, plead for God’s mercy upon them, and give thanks...for He wants everyone to be saved and to understand the truth.”

I Timothy 2:1, 4

HOUSES OF PRAYER EVERYWHERE

exist when two or more believers meet to pray for, care about and share the blessings of God with their neighbors.

Individuals and Congregations should be involved with

HOUSES OF PRAYER EVERYWHERE:

1. God gives us our neighbors.
2. Our neighbors matter to God.
3. Neighbors welcome prayer.
4. Prayer releases God's grace and power in the life of our neighbors.
5. "Pray-ers" become "care-ers" and "care-ers" become "share-ers."
6. God uses praying, caring, sharing Christians to be light in the darkness.
7. God commands believers to make "requests, prayers, intercession and thanksgiving... for everyone."

When your neighborhood has HOUSES OF PRAYER EVERYWHERE:

1. God gets the attention of people when He answers prayer.
2. A long-term presence in the community is established.
3. Relationships are built and fostered.
4. Families are involved and strengthened.
5. Real needs and "felt needs" can be met.
6. Congregations are encouraged and empowered.

There are barriers to HOUSES OF PRAYER EVERYWHERE:

1. Alaskans are not praying people.
2. Alaskans are very individualistic.
3. Alaskans tend to be over-busy.
4. Satan opposes prayer.

Congregations can be helped by HOUSES OF PRAYER EVERYWHERE:

1. It is a simple, God-centered strategy.
2. It does not require money.
3. It impacts the neighborhoods in which the members of the congregation live.
